Data Sources

1. Small Area Health Insurance Estimates 2019 (SAHIE)
   a. This dataset contains demographic information about health insurance coverage and demographics in the counties by a single year in the United States.
2. Unemployment by County
   a. Contains data about the socioeconomics in each county such as income, poverty, education levels and more across the United States.
3. Rural and Urban Codes
   a. Classifies counties across the United States to which degree a county qualifies as metropolitan or nonmetropolitan.
4. Population by County 2019
   a. This dataset shows the birth rate, death rate, and other indicators to estimate the population of the state and county in the United States.